SHARE A STAR

All you need to know about raising money for Share a Star

Who we are

Share a Star is a young charity that works to support severely unwell children and teenagers under the age of 21 suffering from a range of serious chronic, life threatening or terminal conditions.

It is really important to involve the whole family, especially the siblings, as they tend to get unintentionally forgotten. In fact, they are stars in their own right!

Our aim is to send a positive message of hope and to make each youngster feel special by creating a special holding star. Each star is handmade and completely unique, featuring the youngster's favourite things. We also write unique poems to each one of our Stars.

Along with the stars, we send special gifts and cards to help bring a much needed smile to these brave fighters.

Oakley's Outings is a new project run by Share a Star, enabling seriously ill children with complex needs to go on a wish day with their family.

What Your Money Is Used For

All the money raised will be used to benefit the stars and their siblings. Here are some examples of how the money raised will be used:

- To send regular cards and gifts to stars and their siblings
- To send birthday cards and gifts, as well as Christmas cards and gifts to stars and their siblings
- To send cards and gifts to Stars and siblings going through a difficult time
- To purchase specific items for individual stars, such as those isolated in hospital, craft packs for a young child
- Enabling seriously ill children with complex needs to go on a wish day with their family (Oakley's Outings).

Planning an Event

Although every event will be different, there are a number of things to consider:

What:

Decide what kind of event you want to hold. If you are stuck for ideas, our A-Z of fundraising events should help.

When:

Decide when to hold the event. Consider the weather and the time of year the event will take place.

Make sure that your event does not clash with other events in the area or with events on television, such as the Cup Final.

Make sure that any equipment you need will be available.

Where:

Choose an appropriate venue, bearing in mind the facilities available, access for the disabled and parking capacity. It is also important to bear in mind local bylaws, safety concerns and the effect that the event may have on those in the vicinity.

List tasks and delegate:

Get family, friends and colleagues to help with planning the event. Form a committee if necessary.

List the tasks that need completing then delegate them to your helpers, making sure that they know what is required of them.

Planning an Event contd.

Promote your event:

- Display colourful and professional-looking posters in shop windows, libraries and public places.
- Send personal invitations to those individuals or groups who may have a particular interest in your event.
- Hand out leaflets giving details of the event.
- Advertise your event on local radio and in the local newspapers.
- Use social networking sites to promote your event. Share a Star's Facebook and Twitter links can be found on our website.

On the day of the event:

- Gather all helpers together and make sure that everyone is aware of their role.
- Try to ensure that the event runs smoothly and that problems are rectified as soon as possible.
- Ensure that any games and competitions are organised fairly. If any prizes are to be given make sure that these are readily available.
- Liaise with the press if you have arranged for them to attend.

After the event:

Keep accurate records of any money received. Thank everyone involved. Celebrate!

Fundraising Regulations

Depending on the type of event being organised certain regulations may need to be followed:

Street collections:

If you want to collect donations in the street then you need to apply for a Street Collection Permit from the District Council.

Informing the police:

If you are expecting more than 100 people at an event then it is necessary to contact your local police force so they can organise officers to direct traffic or carry out other duties.

Food and drink:

There are a number of regulations regarding the serving of food at events. If you are planning on serving food then you should contact your Local Authority. If you plan to sell alcohol, you need to obtain a liquor licence from your local Magistrates Court.

Small lotteries:

Small lotteries such as tombolas or raffles do not need to be registered but have to be part of an exempt entertainment such as a dinner dance or fete. Certain conditions have to be met, such as no cash prizes, sales of tickets and announcements must take place during the event and no more than £250 must be spent on prizes. Further information can be obtained from Share a Star or the Gambling Commission
